The Govt Council have now considered the question & resolved that the duty cannot be reduced and that the octroi duty may be levied on the merit of the invoice without opening the bundle in all cases where no suspicion of surreptitious import is entertained & that whenever any necessity arises for opening the bundle with a view to correct assessment the bundles may be opened for scrutiny as a check against mal-practice.

for
3/5/28 It is ascertained from the Bombay City Govt Council that the octroi duty on cloth is levied on the ground of the invoice ordinarily, & that even when there is room for suspicion, the bundle is opened & the contents are verified as per invoice

In these circumstances the resolution of the Govt Council Bombay may be sanctioned if approved

CITY MUNICIPAL OFFICE
BANGALORE
Dated 4th July 1928

Dear Sir,

Regarding the enquiry if Octroi duty is levied on each article of cloth by breaking open the bundle or whether the levy is made on the merit of the invoice, please see Rules 7 and 8 printed on page 31 of the Rules and Bye-Laws of the Bangalore City Municipality, typed extracts of which are enclosed for ready reference. I discussed the question with the Octroi Inspector and he says that generally the Octroi is levied on the invoice and where there is any suspicion, the Octroi staff will insist on breaking open the bundle and examining each piece with the invoice.

Yours sincerely,

M Rowlands
